Re: United States v. Constantinescu, et al., 22-cr-612 (S.D. Tex.)

Dear Mr. Draddy:

The U.S. Department of Justice Fraud Section hereby requests access to the following investigative and other non-public files of FINRA related to the above-captioned matter:

- Documents evidencing the conclusion of investigations or reviews by FINRA's Market Investigations Team during period January 2020 through April 2022 involving:
 - (1) any of the named Defendants in the Superseding Indictment in the above-captioned matter, or
 - (2) any of the stock tickers and for the time period appended as Exhibit 1 to this letter.

This request is made in connection with an ongoing lawful investigation or official proceeding inquiring into potential violations of, or failure to comply with, statutes, or a regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, being conducted by this office. The files and information will be used for the purpose of our investigation and/or proceeding and any resulting proceedings.

We acknowledge, in granting access, that FINRA relies upon the Fraud Section's assurances that the Fraud Section will:

1. provide, to the extent allowable by law and/or regulation, confidential treatment in accordance with the provisions and applicable exemptions established under the Freedom of Information Act;
2. establish and maintain such safeguards as are necessary and appropriate to protect the confidentiality of files to which access is granted and information derived therefrom;
3. make no public use of these files or information without prior approval from FINRA;
4. notify FINRA of any legally enforceable demand for the files or information prior to complying with the demand, and assert such legal exemptions or privileges on FINRA's behalf as FINRA may request; and
5. not grant any other demand or request for the files or information without prior notice or over FINRA's objection.

We further acknowledge that FINRA makes no recommendation with respect to investigation or prosecution by the Fraud Section.

We will inform FINRA in the event that the Fraud Section institutes public proceedings based upon the information obtained through this grant of access.

Should you have any questions, please contact me directly.

Sincerely,

/s/ Scott P. Armstrong
